Here's my contribution of $ _____ to the DFW/ABJ Urban Journalism Workshop!

Dues Structure:

$40	Full Members	$40	Associate Members
$10	Student	$500	Corporate

Membership Classifications:

Full – print or broadcast media professionals who produce, gather, disseminate, write, edit, photograph, assign or direct the dissemination and distribution of the news. Full members also include print or broadcast media professionals who are currently on leave participating in an academic or journalistic program; freelance journalists if they earn a majority of their income from freelancing.

Associate – shall be former journalists who are employed at an academic institution, journalism teachers, instructors or professors whose primary task is the education of students in journalism; public relations and advertising professionals, all other people in media organizations in the dissemination of the news and freelance journalists who have the same goals and ideals as DFW/ABJ.

Student – shall be student enrolled in an accredited college or university. A person who has graduated may join DFW/ABJ as a student member for up to one year after his/her graduation date, if that person is unemployed during that one-year period.

Corporate – One single business membership covers up to 10 persons from the same organization who also qualify for Full or Associate membership. Includes being listed on all programs.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS INCLUDE:
